APPENDIX A

Statutes

The Act of June 25, 1948, c. 645, 62 Stat. 701; United States Code, Title 18 § 371.

§ 371. Conspiracy to commit offense or to defraud United States.

If two or more persons conspire either to commit any offense against the United States, or to defraud the United States, or any agency thereof in any manner or for any purpose, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

If, however, the offense, the commission of which is the object of the conspiracy, is a misdemeanor only, the punishment for such conspiracy shall not exceed the maximum punishment provided for such misdemeanor.

The Act of September 13, 1961, Pub. L. 87-216, § 2, 75 Stat. 491; United States Code, Title 18 § 1084 (a).

§ 1084. Transmission of wagering information; penalties

(a) Whoever being engaged in the business of betting or wagering knowingly uses a wire communication facility for the transmission in interstate or foreign commerce of bets or wagers or information assisting in the placing of bets or wagers on any sporting event or contest, or for the transmission of a wire communication which entitles the recipient to receive money or credit as a result of bets or wagers, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both.

APPENDIX B

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

No. 9496

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Appellee,

v.

LANGHORNE CARTER RORER AND FRANCIS A. SIMPSON, JR., Appellants.

APPEAL FROM THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA, AT ALEXANDRIA.
OREN R. LEWIS, DISTRICT JUDGE.

(Argued October 7, 1964. Decided October 12, 1964.)

Before BRYAN and BELL, Circuit Judges, and GORDON, District Judge.

James Heinz for Appellant Simpson, James P. Davenport for both Appellants, and John A. K. Donovan (Donovan, Turnbull and Brophy on brief) for Appellant Rorer, and Plato Cacheris, Assistant United States Attorney, (C. V. Spratley, Jr., United States Attorney, and Edward T. Joyce, Attorney, Department of Justice, on brief) for Appellee.

PER CURIAM:

As the record discloses to us no error of substance in the trial, and evidence adequate to sustain the verdict, we affirm.

Affirmed.
